Really how hard is Chemistry Pre Nursing Students

As far as chemistry goes, I wouldn't say it's an easy class. But it's not impossible. I got an A in general/organic chem, but i had to put in the effort. It definitely helps to have your math requirements done first, so I'd recommend getting your algebra classes out of the way. You will have to do a lot of conversions and some equations in chem (half-lives, converting from moles to grams, calculation solutions, calculating pH), but they are pieces of cake compared to stuff in college algebra.
